

PwC Plus Article

By IOSCO - International Organization of Securities Commissions | 12. März 2018

IOSCO seeks to protect senior investors from financial fraud, unsuitable investments and other risks

The Board of the International Organization of Securities Commissions has published today a report that examines the growing vulnerability of ageing investors to financial fraud and other risks and identifies sound practices for enhancing their protection.

Schlagwörter

Anlegerschutz, Fraud, Wertpapieraufsicht (International)

FS-Branche(n)

Banking & Capital Markets, Asset & Wealth Management

Themen

Risk & Regulation

Verfasser

IOSCO - International Organization of Securities Commissions