

PwC Plus Article

By ESMA - European Securities and Markets Authority | 01. Oktober 2019

ESMA prepares for new responsibilities in 2020

The key issue facing ESMA in 2020 is the implementation of its new mandates, and enhanced role, in areas including direct supervision, supervisory convergence, investor protection, relations with third countries, sustainability and technological innovation.

Schlagwörter

Alternative Investment Fund Managers Directive (AIFMD), CCP (Central Counter Party), Compliance, EMIR (European Markets Infrastructure Regulation), Innovation, MiFID II, MiFIR, Rating, Ratingagenturen (International), Securitisation / Verbriefung, Sustainable Finance (SF)

Themen

Risk & Regulation
Sustainability

Verfasser

ESMA - European Securities and Markets Authority