

PwC Plus Article

By Insurance Europe | 05. Oktober 2020

Network and Information Security Directive should not be extended to include insurance industry

At national level, the industry's cyber resilience is already supported by many well-established systems and initiatives led by both government and the industry. These initiatives facilitate, for example, the sharing of incident information and best practises, among other things.

Schlagwörter

Digital Operational Resilience Act (DORA), Digitalisierung, IT-Sicherheit, Informationstechnologie (IT), Solvency II, Versicherungsaufsicht (Europäische und Internationale Organisationen)

FS-Branche(n)

Insurance

Themen

Risk & Regulation
Technology & Process Risk

Verfasser

Insurance Europe