

PwC Plus Article

By Insurance Europe | 04. März 2021

EIOPA should prioritise prevention, risk reduction and resilience building over pricing when considering insurance and climate change

The concept of "impact underwriting" is not sufficiently well-defined to assess what effects it could have on the availability and affordability of insurance.

Schlagwörter

Climate Change, Risk Management Insurance, Solvency II, Sustainability Risk, Versicherungsaufsicht
(Europäische und Internationale Organisationen)

FS-Branche(n)

Insurance

Themen

Risk & Regulation
Sustainability

Verfasser

Insurance Europe