

PwC Plus Article

By ISO - International Organization for Standardization | 10. November 2021

Consistent emissions reporting vital to achieving science-based climate targets

Internationally agreed methods exist and must be adopted more widely, said world standards leader.

Schlagwörter

Climate Change, Emissionen (Treibhausgase), Framework

Themen

Sustainability

Verfasser

ISO - International Organization for Standardization