

PwC Plus Article

By CRO Forum | 12. Mai 2022

The Internet of Things (IoT) risks from an insurance perspective

The Internet of Things (IoT) is connecting the “virtual” world to physical reality: not only the devices we would normally associate with accessing the Internet, but also machines, vehicles, and industrial plants of all kinds are now equipped with sensors and actuators, allowing them to collect, process and exchange data across digital networks and to interact with the real World via cyber-physical connections.

Schlagwörter

Datenanalyse, Datenschutz, Datensicherheit, Datenübersicht, Digitalisierung, IT-Sicherheit, IT-Systeme, Risk Management Insurance, Versicherungsmarkt

FS-Branche(n)

Insurance

Themen

Risk & Regulation

Verfasser

CRO Forum