

PwC Plus Article

By ESMA - European Securities and Markets Authority | 15. Juni 2022

ESMA reviews its 2021 contribution to the EU's green and digital capital markets

The Annual Report also highlights the most significant elements of ESMA's work in 2021, particularly the development of the regulatory framework for sustainable finance and the risks and opportunities arising from the digitalisation of markets especially for retail investors.

Schlagwörter

Alternative Investmentfonds (AIF), Asset & Wealth Management Aufsicht, Benchmark, CCP (Central Counter Party), Capital Markets Union (CMU), Central Securities Depositories (CSD) / Zentralverwahrer, Compliance, Coronavirus (COVID-19), Derivate, Digitalisierung, EMIR (European Markets Infrastructure Regulation), ESG, Enforcement, Finanzmarkt, Investment Management, Liquidität, MiFID II, Rating, Ratingagenturen (International), Securitisation / Verbriefung, Stresstest, Sustainability Risk, Sustainable Finance (SF), Transparenz, Wertpapieraufsicht (International)

FS-Branche(n)

Banking & Capital Markets, Asset & Wealth Management

Themen

Risk & Regulation
Sustainability

Verfasser

ESMA - European Securities and Markets Authority