

PwC Plus Article

By IOSCO - International Organization of Securities Commissions | 17. Juli 2023

IOSCO publishes a final report to help its members develop sound and well-functioning compliance carbon markets

The report looks at the specific characteristics of CCMs compared to traditional financial markets and outlines a set of recommendations aimed at making these markets efficient and ensuring they function with integrity, learning from the experience of others.

Schlagwörter

Asset & Wealth Management, Compliance, Derivate, Emission (Wertpapiere), Emissionen (Treibhausgase), Emissionshandel, Transparenz, Wertpapieraufsicht (International)

FS-Branche(n)

Banking & Capital Markets, Asset & Wealth Management

Themen

Risk & Regulation
Sustainability

Verfasser

IOSCO - International Organization of Securities Commissions