

PwC Plus Article

By BCBS - Basel Committee on Banking Supervision | 07. März 2024

BCBS Working Papers No 41: G-SIB denominators and scores dynamics: a ten-year assessment

This paper examines the global systemically important bank (G-SIB) framework ten years after its introduction, covering three complementary perspectives: the evolution of the G-SIB denominators, the relative evolution of scores of G-SIBs and non-G-SIBs, and the adjustments in the balance sheets of G-SIBs.

Schlagwörter

Bankenaufsicht (Europäische und Internationale Organisationen), Framework, Global Systemically Important Banks (G-SIB)

FS-Branche(n)

Banking & Capital Markets

Themen

Risk & Regulation

Verfasser

BCBS - Basel Committee on Banking Supervision